Saturday, May 12, 2 p.m.

Famed attorney, media commentator and author Marcia Clark is stopping by the library. She gained national attention in the early 90s during the trials of O.J. Simpson and Robert John Bardo. In recent years, Marcia has turned her talents as a steeled prosecutor into a talent for writing. Her L.A. Times best-selling Guilt by Association is followed up by her soon-to-be-released Guilt by Degrees. Meet Marcia at the library as she discusses her experience as a high-profile prosecutor and best-selling author. Stay after the program for a book signing with Marcia!
