Brown Bag Book Club

Orlando Public Library, Magnolia Room

Tuesday, May 1, 12:15 p.m.

Join us for a lively lunchtime discussion on books! This month's pick is Joyce Maynards' The Good Daughters. The lives and fortunes of two New Hampshire families, the Planks and the Dickersons, are entwined through the youngest daughters of each family, who were born on the same day in the same hospital. One daughter is a realist and the other a dreamer. Follow along as they navigate the milestones of life from New England to China and Canada.

Southeast Book Club

Southeast Branch

Monday, May 14, 6:30 p.m.

We are reading Carrie Fisher's hilarious, sentimental and thoroughly enjoyable memoir Wishful Drinking. The author of four hit novels, Fisher reveals her worst to lend to her best work, which covers everything from her experience growing up in show business to becoming a cultural icon and best-selling action figure by age nineteen.

Southwest Book Club

Southwest Branch

Tuesday, May 15, 7 p.m.

Join the Southwest Book Club this month to discuss the award-winning book, Snow Falling on Cedars by David Guterson. A 1954 murder trial in an island community off the coast of Washington state becomes an exploration of war, race and the mysteries of human motivation. Guterson writes a thoughtful, poetic first novel with detailed, compelling characters.

South Creek Music Club

South Creek Branch

Thursday, May 10 and 24, 6:30 p.m.

The South Creek Music Club meets every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month. This program is a chance for individuals to perform and share their favorite musicians, bands, songs and talents. This fun and exciting event is a great opportunity for the whole family to broadcast themselves and appreciate music from all over the world. Bring your instruments and join in the fun!
