A Look into the Mind of Nevets Killjoy

Edgewater Branch

Tuesday, November 1, 10 a.m.–9 p.m.

Experience a myriad of expressions and emotions through the artwork of Nevets Killjoy aka Steven Lee Hall Jr. — star of “Naked and Afraid” & “Naked and “Afraid XL South Africa” on the Discovery Channel. This art display will run through December.

Art 101: Dadaism

Orlando Public Library, Albertson Room

Wednesday, November 16, 6:30 p.m.

Dadaism was an avant-garde art movement that emerged after the end of World War I. Artists used collage, photography and abstraction to create radical works of art that challenged current perceptions of the world. Learn about this unique form of art and create your own work of art using its techniques and aesthetics. Register online at ocls.info or please call 407.835.7323. This event is intended for ages 15 years older.

Art in Odd Places

Orlando Public Library

Friday, November 11, Noon–9 p.m.

Saturday, November 12, 10 a.m.–8 p.m.

Sunday, November 13, 11 a.m.–4 p.m.

The Orlando Public Library will be a venue in the 2016 Art in Odd Places project, a visual and performing arts festival that presents installations and performances in public places that are not traditionally spaces used for art exhibitions. Installations will be placed in multiple spots along Magnolia Avenue and Central Boulevard, including around the exterior of the library. Visit artinoddplaces.org/orlando for more information.

Christie Miga

Orlando Public Library

Through December

The abstract expressionist paintings of Atlanta-born artist Christie Miga have been featured in several Orlando area galleries and museums. In 2011, she was chosen to produce a special 20th anniversary work of art for The Orlando Fringe. Her unique works of art will be on display at the Orlando Public Library through December.
