NGSQ Study Group

West Oaks Branch

Wednesday, January 11, 6:30 p.m.

Interested in furthering your genealogical research skills? Then the NGSQ Study Group is for you! The conversation will focus on research techniques presented in article as well as logic patterns that were used to find a solution to the genealogical problem. The NGSQ is available in the library's collection at the West Oaks Branch Library and Genealogy Center. January's article will be Elizabeth Shown Mills, "Frontier Research Strategies—Weaving a Web to Snare a Birth Family: John Watts (ca. 1749–ca.1822)," National Genealogical Society Quarterly 104 (September 2016): 165–190.

Genealogy Research Question Workshop

West Oaks Branch

Saturday, January 21, 2 p.m.

Sharpen your genealogy skills and learn about resources by sharing your research questions. Genealogy researchers, whether beginning or advanced, are invited to submit one specific research question in advance. Participate in our group discussion workshop sharing information on genealogy resources, research and methodology to start finding answers. Genealogy Center staff will lead the discussion, and can help direct you to possible answers, resources, types of records, databases and websites. Registration is required. Please email your research question at least seven days in advance of the workshop to genealogy@ocls.info.
