The top 15 things that will get you movin' and groovin' at the library in July

The Summer Reading Program continues this month with lots of fun events for children of all ages to enjoy. Visit the Melrose Center at the downtown library on July 2 and July 23 for WhizKids: Creating Sound for Film. Learn and explore how sound effects are recorded and created in film post production.

Bring your best dancing shoes to the Orlando Public Library on July 25 as Mr. Steve, co-host of the PBS KIDS morning program breaks, performs a special concert during the SteveSongs Concert. Award-winning comical magician Glen Foster brings The Glen Foster show to various branches, starting on July 23 at the Chickasaw Branch.

Don't forget to keep track of all your summer reading, as well as events you've participated in for a chance to win some awesome prizes at the end of the summer.

If you have any questions about the events or information shared below, feel free to contact us as 407-835-7323. Check us out online at www.ocls.info for a complete listing of library events.
