The library welcomes new residents with an informative workshop at the South Creek library

In July the South Creek Library hosts Talleres de Bienvenida, a series of workshops that provides information to new residents of Central Florida. On July 14, everyone is welcome to learn about information and resources related to employment, housing, healthcare, education and transportation. This series is free to all attendees. Workshops are conducted in Spanish.

The library's annual Summer Reading Program is happening now, with programs for all ages through August 4. Visit the downtown library on July 22 for a live performance by Alex & Jenny, a vocal and saxophone duo who will perform a playlist of well-known Latin music for all ages to enjoy.

If you have any questions about the events or information shared below, please feel free to contact us as 407-835-7323. You can also check for more information about the library at ocls.info/español.
