

Melrose Center

ocls.info/melrose

TechKrew: Tech 'N Color

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center

Saturday, June 3, 3:30 p.m.

Sunday, June 18, 4 p.m.

Use pen and tablet technology to color stunning digital images that feature fan favorite characters from pop culture. This class is presented in a fun, casual atmosphere. Ages 11–17.

TechKrew: Acting for the Camera Level 1 & 2

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center

Level 1: Monday, June 12, 10:30 a.m.

Level 2: Monday, June 12, 11:45 a.m.

Whether you want to improve your public speaking, enhance your on-camera skills or you're curious about the world of acting, these classes are for you. Learn the basics of warming up, body language and on-camera vocal technique in Level 1. Put these skills into practice in Level 2 as you rehearse and record a short scene. Ages 11–17.

Melrose Camp: Paper Engineering

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center

Monday, June 5 – Friday, June 9, 3 p.m.

During this five-day camp, design your own pop-up cards. Learn how paper engineers create and fold paper into stunning designs. Combine different paper folds, including the box, V and X folds into a unique card. Ages 11–17.

Melrose Video Meetup: Michelle Burdo

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center

Wednesday, June 21, 6 p.m.

Join us as we welcome former television news anchor and reporter Michelle Burdo as she discusses the nuances of the television interview. Now a media consultant, Michelle draws on her 15 years of journalism experience to help people become comfortable facing questions in front of the camera and speaking before audiences.

Melrose in the Mix

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center

Sunday, June 4, 3:30 p.m.

Nigerian-born American singer and songwriter Paul Adey brings his mix of R&B, pop and hip-hop to the Melrose Center for the next Melrose in the Mix live recording session. Paul will be accompanied by a live band and record original material. Seating is limited. Sign up to attend this intimate recording session at ocls.info/melroseinthemix.