Kindie-rock band Recess Monkey to perform free show at the Orlando Public Library

Orlando, Fla. (April 28, 2018) – Grammy-nominated family-friendly rock band Recess Monkey kicks off the Orange County Library System’s 2018 Summer Reading Program at with a live concert on June 2 at the Orlando Public Library.

Start the summer on a high note as Recess Monkey performs original songs on the library’s main stage. The band, made up of three teachers from Seattle who started making music together in 2005, have released 13 albums and perform “kindie rock” novelty music that has been recognized by the American Library Association, the Parent’s Choice Awards, School Library

Journal and the Grammys. The band has performed at popular music festivals including Austin City Limits, Lollapalooza and Bumbershoot, as well as at performing arts centers across the nation. They're known for upbeat songs, wacky lyrics and high-energy performances.

Recess Monkey's free show at the library begins at 2 p.m. on June 2. Seating is limited, so registration is recommended. To register, call 407-835-7323.
