Orlando Children's Business Fair

Orlando Public Library

Sunday, November 12, 2–5 p.m.

What do Elon Musk, Mark Zuckerberg, Bill Gates and an Orange County third grader have in common? They are all entrepreneurs who innovate and serve their communities. Together, we can invest in the success of the next generation of entrepreneurs.

The Orlando Children's Business Fair is a one-day marketplace where children will debut their innovative inventions, market their services or products and build marketing strategies. For more information visit ocls.info/bizkids.

The Orlando Children's Business Fair is brought to you by the Orange County Library System, in conjunction with the Acton Academy, Acton School of Business and the generous support of our partners and sponsors.

Let's Crochet Star Wars Ornaments

Orlando Public Library

Sunday, November 26, 4 p.m.

Wednesday, November 29, 1:30 p.m.

Make adorable amigurumi-style ornaments to use as holiday decorations, backpack hangers or keychains. Choose from Yoda, Princess Leia or Stormtrooper designs, or make more than one! A fun way to practice basic crochet stitches, learn some new techniques and use up those odds and ends of colorful yarn.

Students must bring the following materials to complete the projects: small amount of worsted weight (size 4) yarn in fern green (Yoda), white (Stormtrooper), beige (Leia), medium brown (Leia) and black; size 4.00mm (G) crochet hook; small amount of fiberfill.

Let's Knit a Yoda Hat

Orlando Public Library

Tuesday & Wednesday, November 14 & 15, 5:45 p.m.

Get ready for the new Star Wars movie release with your very own Yoda hat. Hats can range from baby to adult sizes. Students must bring the following materials to complete the project: at least 136 yards of bulky weight (size 5) yarn, size US 10 knitting needles and stitch markers.
