Young entrepreneurs share their stories with BizKids at the Orlando Public Library

On June 14, the Orange County Library System brings young entrepreneurs to the library to share their inspirational stories and inspire other children to pursue their entrepreneurial passions. During the You Can Be a BizKid event, families can bring their kids to learn about the library's BizKids Camps, where children can learn about creating their own business, pitching concepts, how to use programs such as Microsoft Excel and more. Speakers include 10-year-old Te'Lario Watkins of Tiger Mushroom Farms, a family-run mushroom farm he founded when he was 7 years old, and the Amazing John John, an 8-year-old magician and motivational speaker.

Watkins is the author of Te'Lario's Amazing Mushroom Farm, and he has appeared on the Steve Harvey Show to talk about his business. The Amazing John John, aka John Humphreys, is the author of the book BE AMAZING: A Guide to Becoming the Best Version of Yourself and is a founding member of the Les Brown Maximum Achievement Team. Both Watkins and John John will be available for a book signing at the event.

During the June 14 event, the applications process will open for the 2018 Children's Business Fair, which takes place on November 11, 2018. The Children's Business Fair is a one-day event during which young entrepreneurs can debut their innovative inventions, market their services or products, and build marketing strategies for their own business ideas.

You Can Be a BizKid takes place at the Orlando Public Library at 2pm. For more information on BizKids, visit www.ocls.info/orlando-childrens-business-fair.
