Art & Display Exhibitions

Color and Life

Orlando Public Library, Library Central
Through February

Belina Buisson-Wright is a self-taught artist. Her artwork captures the Haitian culture's vibrancy and is strongly influenced by her African American heritage. She enjoys capturing the grace and beauty of her subjects in everyday settings.

Art 101: Stained Glass

Orlando Public Library, Magnolia Room
Wednesday, February 25, 6:30 p.m.

Learn about the creation and history of stained glass. This art form uses colored glass to create designs that interact with light and nature. Create your own version of stained glass using static clings. Space is limited. Registration required. Register online at ocls.info or please call 407.835.7323. Program recommended for ages 15 and older.

Save the Date: Celebrating the Genius of Women

Save the date for the Celebrating the Genius of Women art exhibition in honor of Women's History Month. The exhibit features finalists of the Women in the Arts, Inc. art competition for local professional female artists. Stop by the Orlando Public Library from March 9 to March 22 or visit our Facebook page to vote for your favorite piece to win the Patron's Choice Award. Voters with an OCLS library card in good standing will be entered into a drawing for a prize. The winning piece will be announced at the annual Art Award Ceremony held on Saturday, March 28.
