

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Date: January 21, 2015

Contact: Tracy Zampaglione

Email: Zampaglione.Tracy@ocls.info

Phone: 407.835.7480 (For publication purposes please use 407.835.7323 for further details.)

Music in the Library

Music on the Porch: Evan Taylor Jones

Winter Garden Branch

Saturday, February 14, 10:30 a.m.

Music in the Library: Evan Taylor Jones

Orlando Public Library, Library Central

Sunday, February 22, 2:30 p.m.

Evan Taylor Jones is a singer/songwriter and performer from Orlando. In just three short years, Jones has made a name for himself around Florida as one of the top soul performers.

World Slavery: The Haitian Revolution and the Rise of American Music

Orlando Public Library, Library Central

Sunday, February 15, 2 p.m.

In this lecture/concert, Ray Kamalay puts African American and American music in the perspective of world history. Kamalay traces the development of slavery from ancient Rome to its links with American society through his own live performance including stories from the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Orange Blossom Blues Society Presents: Blues in the Library

Orlando Public Library, Library Central

Friday, February 27, 12 p.m.

The Orange Blossom Blues Society brings Blues in the Schools (BITS) to your local library! Based on The Blues Foundation's Blues in the Schools program, BITS is designed to introduce students to the blues and educate them about the origins, styles and history through interactive presentations.

###