Book Clubs

Downtown Book Club

Orlando Public Library, Magnolia Room

Tuesday, April 7, 6 p.m.

Join us for a lively discussion on We Are Completely Beside Ourselves by Karen Joy Fowler. Coming of age in middle America, 18-year-old Rosemary evaluates how her entire youth was defined by the presence of an endearing chimpanzee who Rosemary loved like a sister.

Southeast Book Club

Southeast Branch

Monday, April 13, 6:30 p.m.

This month our selection is Small Blessings by Martha Woodruff. Plagued by a life of regrets and the neuroses of his wife, Tom Putnam hopes that a new friendship will revive his dormant life but this opportunity is complicated by the news that his former mistress bore a son.

Got a Life Book Club

Southwest Branch

Wednesday, April 15, 10 a.m.

April's selection is Georgia O'Keeffe: A Life by Roxana Robinson. The first biography written with the full cooperation of the O'Keeffe family examines the artist's long and distinguished career, her personal relationships, and her significance in American art and the Women's Rights movement.

Alafaya Book Club

Alafaya Branch

Wednesday, April 15, 7 p.m.

Our April selection is The Heaven of Animals by David James Poissant. Each story in this collection explores the bonds of family as they are tested by the power of love. Standing at the brink, each character must make a choice: leap or look away?

Hiwassee Book Club

Hiwassee Branch

Monday, April 20, 6:30 p.m.

Come for chatter on We Are Completely Beside Ourselves by Karen Joy Fowler. Coming of age in middle America, 18-year-old Rosemary evaluates how her entire youth was defined by the presence of an endearing chimpanzee who Rosemary loved like a sister.

Southwest Book Club

Southwest Branch

Tuesday, April 21, 7 p.m.

Join us for a discussion on The Autistic Brain by Temple Grandin. Weaving her own experience with remarkable new discoveries, best-selling author and autism advocate Grandin introduces the neuroimaging advances and genetic research that link brain science to behavior.
