Art & Display Exhibitions

Sandy Wynant's Wildlife Photography

Orlando Public Library, Library Central

Through June

Local wildlife photographer Wynant displays photos taken during her time spent observing wildlife in their natural habitats. Wynant's love for wildlife and photography sparked her interest in learning and identifying the many species of birds she's photographed. Her exhibition includes photos of water birds, gators, raccoons, deer, and even the life cycle of the Monarch butterfly and the dragonfly.

Urban Sketching with Thomas Thorspecken

Southwest Branch

Tuesday, May 5, 6 p.m.

Learn about urban sketching. This workshop will introduce simple and straightforward techniques in pen, pencil and watercolor for all levels. Instructor Thomas Thorspecken is a prolific artist and journalist. To learn more, visit his website analogartistdigitalworld.com.

Art 101: M.C. Escher

Orlando Public Library, Palm Room

Wednesday, May 27, 6:30 p.m.

Discuss the art of world-famous graphic artist M.C. Escher and create your own tessellation artwork. Tessellations use interlocking geometric shapes to create intriguing patterns and were often featured in his art. Space is limited. Registration required. Register online at ocls.info or please call 407.835.7323. This program is intended for an audience 15 years of age and older.
