Selling & Marketing Your Poetry

Herndon Branch

Tuesday, June 9, 7 p.m.

Wondering what to do with all those poems you've written? Peter Gordon, published poet and president of Orlando Area Poets, will provide an overview of the many ways to get your poems in the hands of readers. He will discuss how to submit your poems to magazines and publishers, whether or not to enter contests, how readings can be your best tool and how to get started on the Internet.

ALTonya Washington's Book Boutique

Orlando Public Library, Albertson Room

Saturday, June 13, 2 p.m.

Join award-winning romance novelist ALTonya Washington for a Q&A session, discussion of her wildly popular Ramsey Tesano series, mystery readings and the chance to win prizes.

OCLS Writers Group

Orlando Public Library, Magnolia Room

Sunday, June 14, 4 p.m.

Join your fellow writers for critique, discussion, and camaraderie. Writers of all genres and experience are welcome.

Infusing the Afterlife Into Your Fiction

Alafaya Branch

Tuesday, June 23, 7 p.m.

In this workshop, author Heather Startup will examine several novels and one short story, searching for commonalities among their portrayals of the afterlife as well as the unique aspects of each story. Startup will discuss techniques to strengthen characters, the narrator's reliability and your story as a whole.
