Fairs

The start of a new school year is also an opportunity for parents and adults to find their own new beginnings. Various organizations will host informational fairs at the library during the month of August. Meet with these representatives to discuss local resources as well as job and volunteer opportunities.

Orange County Public Schools Information Session

Orlando Public Library, Albertson Room                      Tuesday, August 18, 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Hear valuable information from human resources professionals about the second largest employer in Central Florida! For more information, visit ocps.net.

Senior Resource Fair

Orlando Public Library, Library Central                      Friday, August 21, 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Stop by for information on available resources geared toward seniors offered by a variety of local agencies and professionals.

Volunteer Fair

Orlando Public Library, Library Central                      Sunday, August 30, 2 - 5 p.m.

Curious about what volunteering opportunities there are in the Central Florida area? Visit your local library to talk with various organizations that offer volunteer services to the community. Attendees can meet with representatives from Pet Alliance Orlando, Freedom Ride, Inc, and Volunteers for Community Impact, Inc, and more.
