Screenwriting 101

Orlando Public Library, Albertson Room                      Thursdays, September 3, 10, 17 & 24, 6:30 p.m.
Learn how to develop fascinating stories and bring them to the screen with Andrew Robinson, screenwriter and author of The Writing of a Screenplay and Building a Writing Career. From formatting and writing a script to getting it produced, this four-week series will teach everything you need to know to see your ideas come alive in movies and TV shows.

Writing Young Adult Fiction

South Creek Branch    Saturday, September 12, 11 a.m.
Young Adult fiction has exploded over the past decade. What keeps teens hooked on these books and what keeps them coming back for more? Vivi Barnes, author of PAPER OR PLASTIC, will discuss the basics of writing books for teenagers.

Writers Group

Orlando Public Library    Sunday, September 13, 4 p.m.
Join your fellow writers for critique, discussion and camaraderie. Writers of all genres and experience are welcome. For this special #getOTL session, meet us at the Panera Bread at 227 North Eola Drive. This program is a part of Outside The Lines: Libraries Reintroduced, a weeklong celebration demonstrating the creativity and innovation happening in libraries.

Firearm Forensics for Writers

Orlando Public Library, Albertson Room                      Wednesday, September 16, 6:30 p.m.
Author and firearms crime laboratory analyst Kristin Durfee will share her knowledge and experience with writers looking to make accurate portrayals of forensics in fiction. She will discuss what the firearms lab does and doesn't do, the role of expert witnesses in court cases as well as some of her most interesting cases.
