Tech Talk: Our Digital Heritage
Melrose Center, Tech Central
Thursday, November 19, 6:30 p.m.
Technology and history collide in this discussion on using digital media to preserve folklore and heritage. Dr. Natalie Underberg-Goode will discuss ideas and resources for those interested in preserving the heritage of their own families and communities.

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center
Thursday, November 10, 6 p.m.

Melrose Center Photo Instructors will answer photography questions after a short presentation about common photography mistakes.

Orlando Public Library, Melrose Center
Thursday, November 17, 5:30 p.m.
Emerging photographers are invited for a one-on-one meeting with industry professionals for a review of the photographer's portfolio of work. Each review session is 15 minutes. One-on-one portfolio reviews provide an opportunity for photographers to network and meet potential clients or industry mentors while receiving guidance and critique. Registration for this event will open on Thursday, November 10 following the Photo Meet-up event.

Trainer Tip of the Month

Request a Melrose Simulator Online!
Do you have access credentials to use a simulator, but don't have a lot of time to schedule bookings? Orange County Library resident cardholders with Melrose Center and simulator-specific access credentials can now submit a request online for a simulator. You can request up to two hours of usage per day. Visit ocls.info/MelroseSim to learn more and submit your booking request.

View the Audio, Video and Photo Studio Booking Schedules Online!
Plan ahead for your next studio booking. You can now check the studio availability schedules online at ocls.info/studioreservation before calling to make your reservation.
