NaNoWriMo Write-In

Herndon Branch

Saturday, November 7, 2-4:30 p.m.

Join us for quiet writing time at your library. Bring a laptop or notebook and write alongside other local writers. National Novel Writing Month, or NaNoWriMo, is an event that encourages authors to write 50,000 words in November. Learn more at nanowrimo.org.

Writers Group

Orlando Public Library, Magnolia Room

Sunday, November 8, 4 p.m.

Join your fellow writers for critique, discussion and camaraderie. Writers of all genres and experience are welcome. Please attend one meeting before submitting a piece for critique.

Introduction to Sports Writing

Herndon Branch

Monday, November 9, 7 p.m.

If you've dreamed of writing sports coverage and want to know how to get started, this workshop is for you. Peter Gordon, a local sports writer, will discuss different methods of breaking into outlets like newspapers, magazines, books and blogs. Gordon will demonstrate the type of prose that can get you noticed by reviewing case studies of successful writers and sports blog entrepreneurs.

The Nonfiction Book Proposal

West Oaks Branch

Monday, November 30, 7 p.m.

A fantastic proposal is often your only ticket into a meeting with an agent or publisher. This document must be well-written and contain specific information. Author Bethany Jett will walk through the components of proposals. Attendees will leave with a sample format and a thorough understanding of what an agent or publisher requires.
